Seeing Jesus

By REV. JAMES M. GRAY, D.D.
Dean of Moody Bible Institute,
Chicago

TEXT—We would see Jesus.—John 12:21.

This was the request of certain Greeks who had come up to Jerusalem to worship on the occasion of the last Passover in Jesus' earthly life. They had made the request of Philip, one of the twelve, who in turn carried it to Andrew, and they two together went and told Jesus. The information caused unusual agitation in his breast drawing forth from him some of the profoundest and most mysterious utterances of his whole ministry. We have not time nor space to dwell on these, important and solemn as they are, but feel led to turn attention to another thought. Instead of considering the effect of this inquiry upon Jesus, let us consider its source in the aspiration of those Greeks as the same aspiration arises in our own hearts.

When Our Souls Are Burdened.

(1) We would see Jesus when our souls are burdened with a sense of guilt. What other name can bring us peace, and what other presence can inspire hope, "for he hath made him to be sin for us. Who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." It is not a teacher, nor an example, nor a ruler that we need so much as a Savior and Redeemer, an intercessor and a daysman, and that is what Jesus is for every one of us who puts his trust in him. He can remove our disability before God and release us from our fears and reconcile us to him.

(2) We would see Jesus when we are engaged in his holy worship. Another draws an impressive picture of the blind, the halt, the weary that roamed the streets of Jerusalem where Jesus stood comparatively unknown, and he contrasts their unhappy and destitute condition with its magnificence, its boasted righteousness and outward observances of devotion. And he employs this contrast to illustrate the worthlessness of the holiest of religions without Christ. For example, of what benefit is the church, the Sunday school, the family altar, the holy sacraments if Jesus be not in them every one? Jealously therefore should we watch against the spirit of formalism and ceremonialism that creeps into both our private and public worship. Jesus must be there or these things become a hollow mockery.

(3) We would see Jesus in the details of our daily life as the Lord of our affections, purposes and pleasures. What are the charms of friendship unless sanctified by the thought of him? Our prosperity becomes a curse without him, and in our sorrow and affliction he is the one who alone can comfort us in all our tribulation. Life without him is the river bed without its stream and the day without the sun.

When in the Valley of the Shadow.

(4) We would see Jesus in death. That is a sad story which Severt tells of the last moments of the poet, Keats. Shelley and Hunt had deprived him of his belief in Christianity which he wanted in the end, and he endeavored to fight back to it, saying if Severt would get him a Jeremy Taylor he thought he could believe. But a copy of Jeremy Taylor was not to be found in Rome. Another time having been betrayed into much impatience by bodily and mental anguish, he cried with an oath, "O, Severn, a man ought to have some superstition that he may die decently!"

There is a marked contrast between this pitiable wall and the triumphant pean of an aged saint of my acquaintance, who falling accidentally upon the floor one day and supposing that her time had come to be gathered into the eternal storehouse, broke forth in the happy refrain, Hallelujah! 'Tis done, I believe on the Son!

I am washed in the blood of the Crucified One!

When We Are in Glory.

(5) We would see Jesus in glory. This is the consummated desire of every awakened soul and has the support of the word of God which says: "They shall see his face and his name shall be in their foreheads." Indeed the end of Christ's intercessory prayer for his disciples was, "Father, I will that they also whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am, that they may behold my glory which thou hast given me."

Even at this long period of time we almost envy those Greeks who came to Philip saying, "Sir, we would see Jesus," but a blessed day is coming when in a sense not capable of being understood just now, "we shall see him as he is, for we shall be like him." Like him that is, if we have believed on him and confessed him before men. O, in these awful days of war, when the judgments of God are in the earth, I plead with my fellow-men to hearken to his warning voice, and before it is too late to acquaint themselves with him and be at peace.

ATTENTION! Sick Women

To do your duty during these trying times your health should be your first consideration. These two women tell how they found health.

Hellam, Pa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles and a displacement. I felt all run down and was very weak. I had been treated by a physician without results, so decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, and felt better right away. I am keeping house since last April and doing all my housework, where before I was unable to do any work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly the best medicine a woman can take when in this condition. I give you permission to publish this letter."—Mrs. E. R. CRUMMING, R. No. 1, Hellam, Pa.

Lowell, Mich.—"I suffered from cramps and dragging down pains, was irregular and had female weakness and displacement. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which gave me relief at once and restored my health. I should like to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies to all suffering women who are troubled in a similar way."—Mrs. ELISE HEIM, R. No. 6, Box 88, Lowell, Mich.

The Chase as an Exercise.
The chase as an exercise for the ruling caste in Germany has survived into our own time, states a writer. Every Prussian officer had to spend part of his time hunting, not foxes merely, but deer and boar as well. Royalty still went in state to the boar-seeking, and stag hunt, with hundreds of beaters and a tremendous retinue. The slaughter still mounted into the hundreds.

What Moves Men.

Man does not live by bread alone, but by the ideals that stir his heart, observes a writer. Napoleon's men were struggling through the snow and cold and discouragement of Alpine passes. Would they ever come through? They did, but the great French leader neither drove nor bribed them. He fired their souls. He called them to look down upon the smiling plains of Italy and pictured to them its sunny fields, its warm waters, its orange groves, its comfortable cities, its whole lure and romance. For things like these men work and fight.

A Genuine Patriot.

The school teachers on the East side in New York are finding some interesting material in the manner in which alien parents are saving to aid in the war. One little girl told her teacher how "the folks at home" are going to help. "My father and mother and me," she said, "we made it on a piece of paper last night. My father makes $18 the week, and he pays for the rent $18 the month, $2 for coal, $3 for milk for the baby, $7 a week for eats. Then he gets left $4 the week. He gives my mother $2 for clothes, he keeps $1 the week and puts $1 the week for the war savings. He does that so long as the war should last."

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Catarhal Deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. Catarhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing may be destroyed forever. Many cases of Deafness are caused by Catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

YOU NEED NOT SUFFER WITH BACKACHE AND RHEUMATISM

For centuries GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has been a standard household remedy for kidney, liver, bladder and stomach trouble, and all diseases connected with the urinary organs. The kidneys and bladder are the most important organs of the body. They are the filters, the purifiers of your blood. If the poisons which enter your system through the blood and stomach are not entirely thrown out by the kidneys and bladder you are doomed.

Weariness, sleeplessness, nervousness, depression, backache, stomach trouble, headache, pain in loins, and lower abdomen, gall-stones, gravel, difficulty when urinating, cloudy and bloody urine, rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago, all warn you to look after your kidneys and bladder. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are what you need.

They are not a "patent medicine" nor a "new discovery." For 200 years they have been a standard household remedy. They are the pure, original imported Haarlem Oil of your great-grandmother used, and are perfectly harmless. The healing, soothing oil soaks into the cells and lining of the kidneys and through the bladder, driving out the poisonous germs. New life, fresh strength and health will come as you continue this treatment. When completely restored to your usual vigor, continue taking a capsule or two each day. They will keep you in condition and prevent a return of the disease.

Do not delay a minute. Delays are especially dangerous in kidney and bladder trouble. All reliable druggists sell GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. They will refund the money if not as represented. In three sizes, sealed packages. Ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL. Accept no substitutes.

Scenes of Prosperity

Are Common in Western Canada

The thousands of U. S. farmers who have accepted Canada's generous offer to settle on homesteads or buy farm land in her provinces have been well repaid by bountiful crops of wheat and other grains.

Where you can buy good farm land at $15 to $30 per acre—get $2 a bushel for wheat and raise 20 to 45 bushels to the acre you are bound to make money—that's what you can do in Western Canada.

In the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta you can get a

During many years Canadian wheat fields have averaged 20 bushels to the acre—many yields as high as 45 bushels to the acre. Wonderful crops also of Oats, Barley, and Flax.
